Health Equity ECHO Series Launch

NEW ECHO: Advancing Health Equity through Integrated Care ECHO

This ECHO Learning Community will bring together a diverse group of experts and organizations for peer-to-peer learning and discussions with a group of health provider organizations who are committed to advancing equity for both clients and staff within their organizations to ultimately improve the access to and quality of health services provided to historically marginalized communities, through advancing integrated health and strengthening clinical and organizational practices. This ECHO will meet monthly for 6 months from February – July 2022.
